About the Artists

Tiffany Heng-Hui Lee is a Taiwanese-American visual artist whose abstract works span sculpture, collage, jewelry, and painting. With over thirty years as a corporate interior designer, she merges art and design through color, texture, and material. Her layered compositions evoke movement, nature's instability, and the balance found within complexity.

Born in Mexico City in 1957, architect, designer, and artist Mauricio Rodriguez Anza explores experimental studies in architecture, design, and art. His prolific body of work includes over 300 furniture pieces, installations, and museum designs. He is also co-founder of Design Museum Houston (DMH).

Mathieu JN Baptiste, an acclaimed Haitian-American artist, creates paintings, drawings, and public art that fuse culture and creativity. His work reflects his belief that art should teach, heal, and inspire.
